DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 18, 22, and 26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.
3. Claim 18 recites the limitations "the gearwheel drive" in lines 2-3 and "the damping circuit" in line 4. There are insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
4. Claim 22 recites the limitations "the damper cylinder" in lines 4-5 and "the end of the movement stroke" in line 6. There are insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.
5. Claim 26 recites the limitation "the spring circuit" in lines 4-5. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

7. Claims 1 and 5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Morski (U.S. 1,290,293).

Art Unit: 3616

Morski a suspension device for the load-bearing and resilient support of a wheel (C) in a motor vehicle, comprising at least one spring cylinder (D) with a piston (12), which is guided in a manner moveable relative to a pressure cylinder (10), and comprising a driving device including a gearwheel mechanism (combination of 19, 12) for converting pivoting movements of a wheel oscillating-crank supporting arm (26), which movements oscillate about an oscillating-crank axis (18), into the relative movements between the pressure cylinder (10) and the piston (12), the piston (12) acting counter to an elastically compressible spring medium (from the spring 16) in order to produce a load-bearing supporting spring force, wherein the gearwheel mechanism comprises a gearwheel element (19), which is connected or can be connected to the oscillating-crank supporting arm (26) and is mounted in a rotating manner about the oscillating-crank axis (18) and has at least a partial peripheral toothing, and a rack element (the gear of the rack 12) which is connected to the piston or to the pressure cylinder (10).

Allowable Subject Matter

8. Claims 3-4 are allowed.
9. Claims 2, 6-17, 19-21, 23-25, and 27 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
10. Claims 18, 22, and 26 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Art Unit: 3616
